

CSS stands for Citizen Self Service portal. This portal allows customers to apply for permits, request inspections, and make payments online. It also gives the general public the ability to conduct basic searches for permits and code cases.